

ESTHER DARED TO RISK DEATH FOR HER PEOPLE

Esther was a beautiful Jewish woman. And she was chosen to be the queen of the Persian King Xerxes, who did not know that she was Jewish. A Persian official named Haman hated all the Jews, but he especially hated Esther's uncle Mordecai. So Haman plotted to have all the Jews killed. Mordecai found out about this plot and begged Esther to ask the king to save their people. Anyone who went to the Persian king without being invited by him could be put to death. But Esther was brave enough to go to the king, and her people were saved.

