Paul Preaches in Rome

Paul was sent to Rome as a prisoner for teaching about Jesus. He was allowed to live in a house with a soldier to guard him. One day, he met with the local Jewish leaders and told them:

My friends, I have never done anything to hurt our people, and I have never gone against the customs of our ancestors. But in Jerusalem I was handed over as a prisoner to the Romans. They looked into the charges against me and wanted to release me. They found that I had not done anything deserving death. The Jewish leaders disagreed, so I asked to be tried by the Emperor. But I don't have anything to say against my own nation.

For two years Paul stayed in a rented house and welcomed everyone who came to see him. He bravely preached about God's kingdom and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ, and no one tried to stop him.

Based on Acts 28.16-19, 30, 31

KEY VERSE Acts 28.31
