

DAY 5

Mighty God

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

Mighty God

Day 5

MONDAY, DECEMBER 22, 2025

🎵 Recommended Hymn: O Worship the King

Read

Psalm 62

I wait patiently for God to save me; I depend on him alone.
He alone protects and saves me;
he is my defender, and I shall never be defeated.
How much longer will all of you attack someone who is no stronger than a broken-down fence?
You only want to bring him down from his place of honor;
you take pleasure in lies.
You speak words of blessing, but in your heart you curse him.

I depend on God alone; I put my hope in him.
He alone protects and saves me;
he is my defender, and I shall never be defeated.
My salvation and honor depend on God;
he is my strong protector; he is my shelter.
Trust in God at all times, my people.
Tell him all your troubles, for he is our refuge.

Human beings are all like a puff of breath;
great and small alike are worthless.
Put them on the scales, and they weigh nothing;
they are lighter than a mere breath.
Don't put your trust in violence;
don't hope to gain anything by robbery;
even if your riches increase, don't depend on them.

More than once I have heard God say that power belongs to him and that his love is constant.
You yourself, O Lord, reward everyone according to their deeds.

Hebrews 1:1-12

In the past God spoke to our ancestors many times and in many ways through the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us through his Son. He is the one through whom God created the universe, the one whom God has chosen to possess all things at the end.

For more free Bible resources visit: AmericanBible.org/ScriptureResources

© 2025 American Bible Society. Scripture selections are taken from the Good News Translation® © 1992 American Bible Society. All rights reserved.

He reflects the brightness of God's glory and is the exact likeness of God's own being, sustaining the universe with his powerful word. After achieving forgiveness for the sins of human beings, he sat down in heaven at the right-hand side of God, the Supreme Power.

The Son was made greater than the angels, just as the name that God gave him is greater than theirs. For God never said to any of his angels, "You are my Son; today I have become your Father." Nor did God say about any angel, "I will be his Father, and he will be my Son." But when God was about to send his first-born Son into the world, he said, "All of God's angels must worship him.

Of the angels he says, "God makes his angels winds, and his servants flames of fire."

But about the Son, he says, "Your kingdom, O God, will last forever and ever! You rule over your people with justice. You love what is right and hate what is wrong. That is why God, your God, has chosen you and has given you the joy of an honor far greater than he gave to your companions."

He also said, "You, Lord, in the beginning created the earth, and with your own hands you made the heavens. They will disappear, but you will remain; they will all wear out like clothes. You will fold them up like a coat, and they will be changed like clothes. But you are always the same, and your life never ends.

Reflect

The baby who lay in the manger is also the Mighty God who holds the universe together by his powerful word (Hebrews 1:3). Psalm 62 reminds us that strength and security are found not in our own power or possessions but in God alone. He is our refuge, our fortress, our unshakable foundation.

In Hebrews, we see the fullness of this truth revealed in Jesus. He is the brightness of God's glory. The same voice that spoke creation into existence now speaks forgiveness and life into our hearts. When we feel weak, he remains strong. When everything around us changes, he stays the same.

To call Jesus Mighty God is to confess that he is more than a teacher or prophet. He is the living God, sustaining all things and reigning forever. His might is not distant or harsh; it is tender strength that defends, rescues, and restores his people.

Today, rest in his power. The hands that shaped the stars are the same hands that hold you.

For more free Bible resources visit: AmericanBible.org/ScriptureResources

Dig Deeper

- Read Ephesians 3:20. How does this verse fit with today's readings? How does it shape your view of Jesus as "Mighty God"?
- Reflect on where you have seen God's strength at work in your life this year. Where do you need answered prayer? Pray boldly, making your requests known to God (Philippians 4:6).

Pray

Heavenly Father, thank you for being my refuge and my strength. Thank you that through Jesus, the Mighty God, I can face every day with confidence. Help me to trust in your power instead of my own and to find rest in your unchanging love. When I feel weak, remind me that your strength is made perfect in my weakness. May my heart rejoice in the one who holds the universe—and me—in his hands. In Jesus's name I pray, Amen.

